

ACTO 2013 Conference Overview:

To assist you in planning your time at the 2013 ACTO Conference.

Please note content is subject to change. Locations will be announced closer to the event.

Thursday, April 18:

6:00-7:30 - Welcoming Reception (included)

Friday, April 19:

8:00-9:00 – Breakfast – (included) connecting with ACTO Colleagues

9:00 – 10:15: Conference Opening /Introductions

10:30-11:45: Micki McMillan (Blue Mesa Group) – Ethics Task Force Report: In 2012, we delved into the conversation of Ethics: how we train coaches and what is needed. The Ethics Task Force will give an update on their work. An interactive Ethics Exploration will be presented by Joan King and Meg Mann (SUN).

11:45am - 12:00pm: Introduction of New Board Candidates

12:00-1:00pm: Lunch (included)

1:00- 5:00pm: Open Space, a chance for both learning and conversations.

There will be Two Sessions of Open Space, so that you can attend more than one.

Possible Open Space topics:

- Executive Coaching education
- Coach-approach applications of coaching
- Ethical Code for Schools
- Multicultural coaching education
- Continuing education
- ICF update on assessor training
- Future of Coaching
- Preparing our students for advanced credentials (ICF, CCE, etc.)

5:00pm: “Meet and Greet” in the lounge, with dinner on your own.

Saturday, April 20:

8:00-9:00am: Breakfast (included)

9:00- 10:15:

The “State of ACTO” - Cynthia Loy Darst (CRR Global) our 2012-2103 President.

Annual meeting and handing over of the baton to Virginia Kellogg, 2013-2014 President.

“Vision for ACTO” by Virginia Kellogg (Leadership that Works) incoming ACTO president.

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-12:00pm: World Café conversation in the whole group. We will explore where ACTO is heading in the next few years and give you an opportunity to shape the future of ACTO, in a World Café format that will help you make even more connections with each other.

12:00-1:00pm: Lunch (included)

1:00-2:30pm: Multicultural Coaching and YOU! As coaching expands around the globe we need to tune our awareness to culture. Whether you are training in other countries, or companies, the culture makes a huge difference about how coaching is understood. This experiential session is designed to give you ideas you can use with your students and create stronger connections within our ACTO membership.

2:30-3:00pm: Break

3:00-3:45pm: Updates from the ICF and other coaching organizations.

3:45-4:00pm: Introduction of the New ACTO Board for 2013-2014.

4:00-6:00: Free Time

6:00-9:00pm: Dinner together (included)
and Game Night: Expect to laugh and play together!

Sunday, April 21

8:00-9:00am: Breakfast (included)

9:00-11:00: Neuroscience and Coaching - by Ann Betz (CTI) and Linda Page (Adler Int'l Learning) An experiential exploration of your brain, and what this means to coach training.

11:00-12:00: Wrap up and closing of the Conference