

Dear ACTO Conference Delegates:

We're excited to meet you during the ACTO 2015 annual conference in sunny Florida!

ACTO's conference headliner 'Tending the Fire...Catching New Sparks!' addresses tending to your business as well as continuously stimulating new thinking and opportunities for learning. As supporters of ACTO's important mission we are excited to introduce CoachCertifications.com, an online community of premier coaching school certification programs, dedicated to helping your school increase visibility in today's competitive certification training market.

Your school can be viewed daily by hundreds of coaching students and stand out in the crowd! CoachCertifications.com assists students or coaches as they navigate through a sometimes daunting certification decision-making process. Here, students can research, compare, and select their "right" coaching program and—all in one place.

We can't wait to learn more about your school!

See you there,

Audrey J. Beach, RCC and J. Matthew Becker, M.Ed., PCC
