

INTERVENTION MASTERY SKILLS:

PRESENCE AND STRATEGIC USE OF SELF

November 28–30, 2017 in Toronto

Dorothy E. Siminovitch, PhD, MCC

Personal and professional mastery means that we are aware of what we evoke and responsible for what we provoke. As coaches, we are tasked with being present in our presence and being able to leverage our presence in order to: be aware of who we are; act choicefully in the moment; strengthen our capacity to influence and to inspire others; and nurture our ability to effectively intervene across multiple levels of system relevant to the client. Skillful leveraging of presence requires excellent process management skills that invite awareness, choice, and innovation.

This workshop draws from Gestalt foundations, and is designed to explore coaching presence and to develop a perceptive and strategic use of self that can make a difference in clients' personal and professional lives. We offer a highly experiential, relational, and feedback-rich workshop that allows our participants to practice what they are learning in the observant, supportive company of equally committed peers and experienced Gestalt practitioners.

Participants will:

- Strengthen awareness of their distinctive presence
- Explore their impact and effectiveness as intervener at multiple levels of system
- Identify their access to both intimacy and strategic action
- Learn developmental strategies to increase personal and professional mastery
