

Exploring Power & Privilege in the Coaching Profession

Tuesday November 20, 2018

ADLER, 890 Yonge St, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario

WHY IS THIS A HOT TOPIC?

Like other professions, coaching is facing questions about equity and inclusion. Who coaches, who has access to coaching and how we can do a better job of expanding our understanding and approaches to include and meet the needs of a broader group of people?

Most recently, the Association of Coach Training Organizations (ACTO) took a stand in addressing power, privilege and oppression (PPO) in the coach education field.

Join us in this introductory workshop to learn more about PPO. We'll delve into the latest work in diversity, bias and power using storytelling, mindfulness and embodied practice.

COME GET CURIOUS WITH US!

Registration deadline: Nov 13, 2018

Early bird Oct 20: $199 + hst

After Oct 20: $249 + hst

Co-Facilitators:

Indy Batth

Shannon Thompson

Louise Pitre

Learn more and register: <https://bit.ly/2NJAShL>